Hey Emily

I hope you are well and doing ok. Thankyou so much for your reply, I've received the November monthly report. The pictures of Abel are great.

I am going to visit Chris again with his Mother.

I knew Abel would want to keep a suitcase, that's really cute, I don't mind at all.

Although I find it really hard to believe that he doesn't want to see me but I will have to learn to accept this for now. I hope I get to see him for Christmas. I would like the Staff to support as much as possible in regards to family time and to explain to Abel that Mommy is alot stronger now and can take him to all the activities that he is attending. Does the family time include his NanNan and Grandy? I dont understand why he wanted to see me when I was in hospital and never got the chance. What has changed? What is the reason of him not wanting to see his Mother. I can understand him being angry and upset with me. This is heartbreaking. I just want a chance to be the Mother I've always wanted to be as I feel more than ready. I want to work with you so Abel can get all the support he needs. I will keep fighting Emily.

I have been attending Crown Street Hub they have been extremely supportive towards me. I have also attended WHISC, The Haven Project and will be starting at Blackburne House soon. I also have my CPN who I see weekly. I have made great improvements and feel the best I've been in years.

I have a new school uniforms for his new school I just need to change the black jumpers for new blue or purple ones. He also has two new school shoes as a spare in case he jumps in muddy puddles. I always had to have spare uniform or spare clothes in his back pack.

Can you please get his Xmas list as I need this asap?
Thankyou for your time and support.

Kindest regards
Ashley Macklin
