Ben

I feel ashamed with these emails... oh well, so, this was what I was going through at the time and I just got left to rot. I'm sorry Ben for all that I've caused

Sorry Elles,

Phone completely cut out. Other phone has had a black screen since yesterday.

I'm aware you have your next client so thought I would email you once my phone had charged a little.

Yeah so as I was saying to Ben

"Don't you dare be going for my Solicitor Elle, she's Dreamy" He burst out laughing and said

"She's dreamy Ash? Aaahh" I replied

"Yes she is, she's an absolute delight, she reminds me of Rod Stewart's wife Penny Lancaster she's stunning! And so is Abbie she reminds me of our Holly, she has the perfect teeth and is gorgeous. And my Barrister Amanda, say no more, their like my very own Kill Bill Assassins Team or Charlie's Angels mate so don't go there. If you want to go after anyone it will be LA, the Housing or Doctors, ok sausage"

He was laughing his head off at me. As we can have healthy debates my little brother and I, no matter how bad the situation is. We can always pull out laughter from any circumstances.

I do think it's strange no one will talk to him. No one will put in for a family group conference or meeting.

Police will not assist me with all what has gone on since my car was stolen or send a Forensic Team. Gaslighting me over this substance when it's clearly drugs not plaster board. I have MDMA in my system. I need DNA Legal again and I would like the documents sent to my address.

My Mother and Step Father don't have MDMA on there testing results. I have had to push them away, again as I'm being very cautious who is around me. I'm even going to have to cancel my window cleaner to be extra cautious as I don't trust this neighbourhood anymore as they are all scared to say anything about the incidents. Everybody knows something and I don't. I've been around this neighbourhood 22yrs, I don't know anyone personally but know locals to say hello too. Something is not right.

When speaking to the lady from housing, I explained when Prospero where here under 24hr High Level Monitoring and that most of them where Black African men staying over when I thought a woman should of stayed with me. That my keys where always in the living room when I would wake up in the morning when I would always leave them in the kitchen. She then said to me..

"What did you say? Two black men in your garden? I replied

"No! I did not say that you are getting misconstrued. She put me on hold and immediately put me through to Elaine Thomas.

When speaking with the first mental health team a Dr Greenwell also said "So your saying there was two black men in your garden?"

"No, I did not say that"

"You woke up and seen two black men in your bedroom?"

"Excuse me? No! What are you on about I didn't say that, why is everyone getting misconstrued?"

The Ambulance was cancelled because I was NOT in a Mental Health Crisis.

The last time I spoke with Police I kept getting put on hold. He was getting really agitated with me. I told him to call Elaine Thomas. He did not like that I had a professional to back me up with my claims. He put me on hold whilst he called Elaine. When he got back to me he said

"I am still sending Mental Health Team. If they cancel this time, again. Then Police will assist you further"

I thought great, finally I'm getting somewhere after being rejected several times.

No. Ambulance was cancelled. No mental health crisis. Called Police back to see how they could assist me. I was told by a Scouse Police Woman after me explaining all that has gone on since 2021 and that since my little Brother Ben had sent legal documents to Dr Ahmed asking for £50,000 in discrepancies and £20,000 to the Housing my Sons and I our lives have been in tatters. And that I'd told my Brother you do this there will be retaliation and repercussions.

"If I we're you luv, I'd change your Doctor!!"

Like as if she was giving me the biggest clue, so I replied

"I think I've heard all that I needed to hear and I think I know what's been going on. Thankyou so much for that"

Elaine Thomas has been repeatedly saying

"I strongly advise you not to have Ben back"

I take her upstairs to show her the substance on my bed. She advised me to get rid of the bed. I told her unfortunately I don't have that type of money. It was £290 for the mattress from Dunelm and £450 for the ottoman base. I love my bed its the best one I've ever had.

Last year someone had got in again, someone urinated all over the top where you rest your head. If Abel would have an accident it was always in the middle of the bed and it would not go through to the base. Someone had lifted it up and urinated underneath it. My bedroom smelt like a man's toilet out of a dingy pub. It took me a week to clean it properly with scattering sodium bicarbonate all over the massive yellow/orange stain for a few days to let it soak it all up and get rid of the stagnant smell. Then hoovered it off then had to soak the whole mattress with sodium bicarbonate and White Vinegar for a day. Then my upholstery cleaner which took two days then a few more days to dry. I had to close my bedroom door and have the windows open for over a week because it was that bad. I had to sleep in Abels bed. It was awful. I kept telling Emily Bailey and Leanne Thomkins that someone was getting interested, they was not listening to me or helping in anyway. To them I was looking the plot, failing my Son. Just kept wanting to take Abel saying he wasn't safe with me. I told them I'm walking around with a pair of scissors from DNA Legal in me nightgown at night. They asked was I scared I said

"NO! I'm not!! I'm prepared to keep my Son safe like a Lioness to her cub would in the wild"

They didn't care. Only cared about there positions at work.

Emily or Leanne have not visited me for months and months. I requested to see them both and was fobbed off, again.

How heavy are them bones getting in ya closet girl?? That's what I'll end up saying to Emily.

Abel needs to come back to his Mother, this has gone on long enough, we need emergency housing because I'm being targeted.

Even though the locks on the front and back door have been changed that doesn't make any difference who ever it is could still gain access if they wanted to. I need locks on all windows changing and help putting my own indoor and outdoor surveillance up as I'm not tech savy

My apologies Elles, I'm sorry I'm not having a go at you as I think your fantastic, I'm just expressing and explaining as much as I can.

I've got to call Europcar because he didn't tell me if it was Diesel or Petrol.

I've just had a call from Elaine and she has spoken with Emily saying it all doesn't sound great. Emily said she doesn't have nothing to do with me only Abel. She is saying I don't have Autism that it's something else thats mentally wrong with me and I need to go to the mental health team. This is so she can waste time and drag the case out whilst everyone still gets paid out and so they have enough time to have multi-agency meetings to save their own backs.

Our David has had his own business for 30yrs+, our Lynette worked in a Solicitors for about 10yrs and our Jessica is an associate lecturer at her university also doing law, not sure what field. My nephew from my older Brother Mick who lives in Stoke or Staffordshire his Son Christopher is doing his masters in law, again, not sure what field. My paternal family are very intellectual and well educated.

LA will not be able to divide these three family members as they are extremely close. David and Lynette have been together since I was a small child. They own their own home near Childwall Valley, they are an amazing influence on me. I've not seen them through sheer embarrassment of the state that I've been in over the years with no means of support from professionals and service providers. I was screaming out for respite for over 5yrs, no one was listening. The Macklins all thought I was a drug addict because I looked that ill, going from near 10stone to 7stone 10. I had to reassure my Dad when he was alive that I was not a drug addict as he and my paternal family was extremely worried about my health, my well-being and for Abels development. They have missed out on Abel and now is time to reunite, for Abel to get to know them all again as he was only a baby and toddler when they was last around.

They all have Autism and ADHD/ADD. I have Autism ADHD/ADD on my paternal and maternal side of the family. I know what will happen, they will carry on working against me. Emily does not want me to ever have my Son back into my care, she made that clear at the beginning of the ICO. What does get to me is the level of corruption of all of this is so wrong, that, is what has a major effect on my mental health and well-being is the organisational and discriminatory abuse that has gone on since 2021. It has to stop. We have not been safeguarded by anyone. Actions and failures to take care of Abel and myself has caused significant harm. The psychological trauma, leaving us unattended when we needed assistance. Unequal treatment based on disability and ableism. Inability to provide a good level of care setting for my child's needs, myself included. Ignored requests from all parties, extra meetings so I understand, withholding information, not guiding me in the right direction. Ignored requests from Occupational Therapists for my Son and I, especially maintenance for the garden, when I needed it paying for hygiene purposes. All of this had changed my demeanor as I was appearing afraid for my Son and our future together. Untreated medical conditions. Poor standard of care being provided from all involved. Because I was neglected by services, my health declined and my little boy was neglected by his one and only, me his Mother. As I was suffering from Mothers Burn Out, Fibromyalgia symptoms are chronic widespread pain, severe exhaustion and fatigue. So being completely burnt out just exacerbated all my symptoms.

Since my car was stolen there have been repeated acts of intentional harm that have taken place in the property, numerous crimes that are being ignored with zero assistance from Police. Being spoken to like a perpetual child, adamant I'm in a Mental Health crisis when that is not the case. I must admit, all this corruption could land anyone getting committed. For the love of God.

I'm sure my little Brother was just wanting the best for his Nephew and Sister. To expose corrupt activities and risks, stop dishonest practices, ensure public sector employees act in the public interest.

It makes me laugh about Emily having suspicions over me being in contact with him when I haven't even spoken to him. Not since 9th January.

He has everything on file. This is why they don't want him, won't speak with him. But all professionals had to get into my head and tell me he's no good for me and my Son. He's a malignant narcissist with manipulative ways. That's ok. Because he will probably give all what he has to David, Lynette and Jessica, then they will speak with Christopher also. Maybe they can do it in a way we're it won't offend professionals as much. I don't know law, only a bit of dental nursing. It has got to stop. My Son wants his Mother, his Father is in jail he needs positive family around him.

Apologies Elle. But please do all you can. I trust you can do this for my Son and myself. Is it worth me emailing the Judge?

I've got to head out on some errands. I'm aware you have sent me the statement. I will get to it when I get back, alright.

Thankyou for all your time and help. Enjoy the rest of your day, you take care see you soon.

Kindest regards
Ashley Macklin
